

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

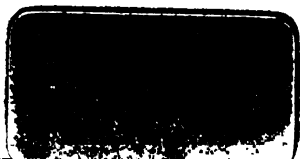

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

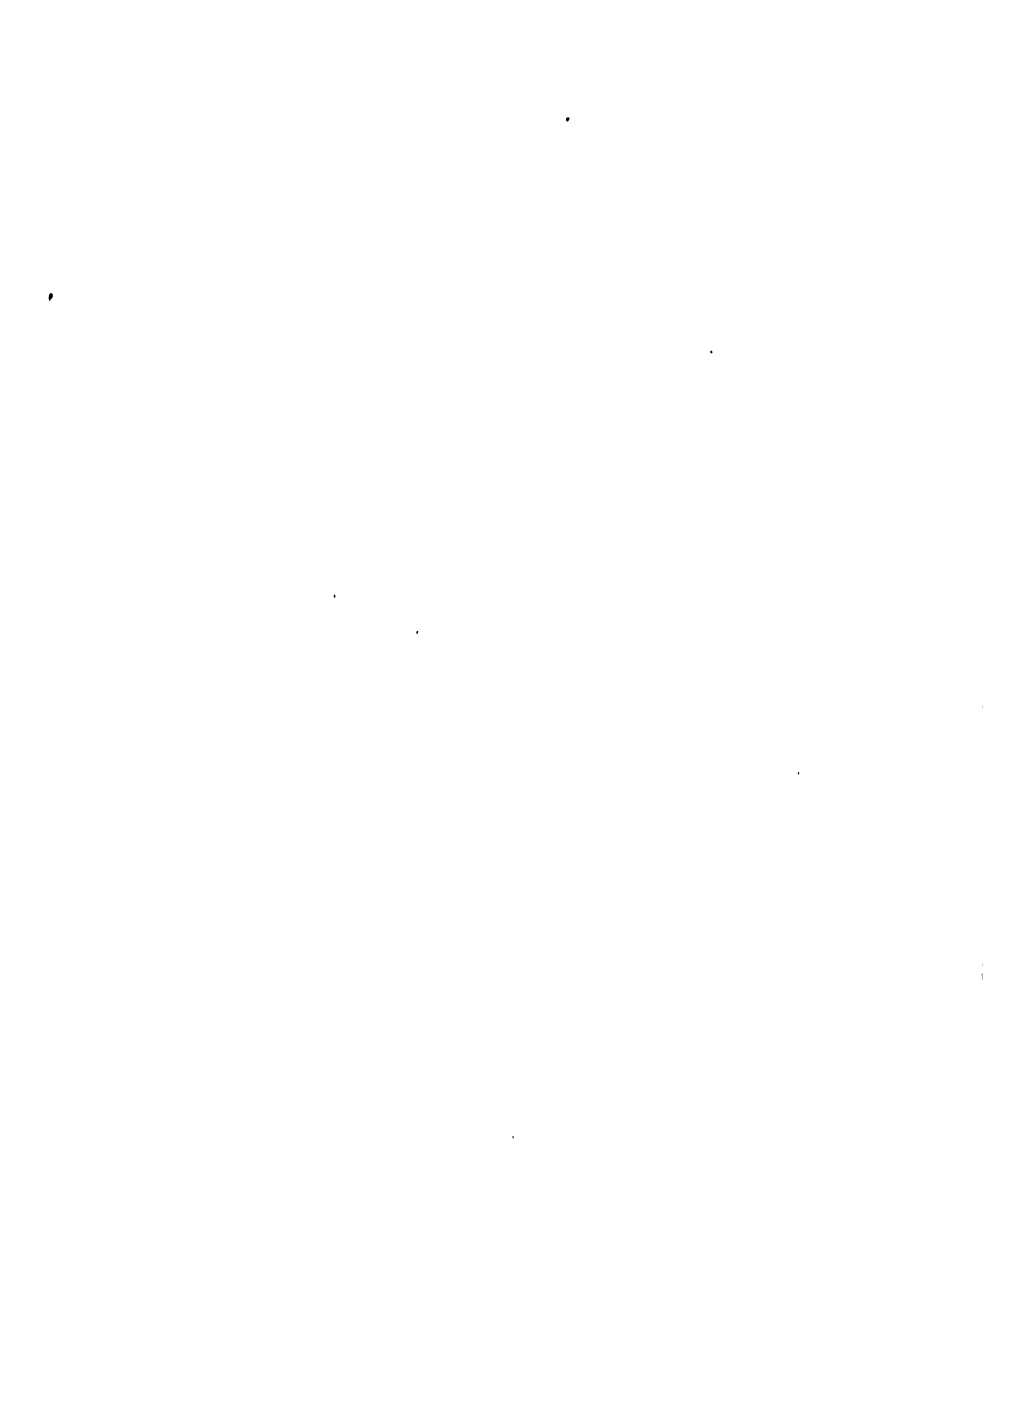

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

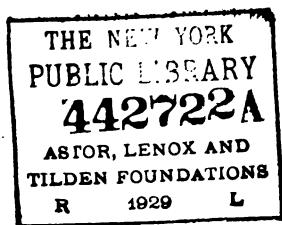

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Note.

THIS is not the complete Catalogue of a distinct class of my stock. It comprises but few of the numerous works upon the subject which were printed in Spanish, Portuguese, and Italian. These must be looked for in two separate Catalogues which some of my customers have already had, and which will be furnished on application to any member of the Geographical Congress.

In the absence of a consecutive numeration of the articles in this Catalogue, it will be advisable for any one who sends me an order by post, to specify the page, name, and price of each article desired.

FACSIMILE-ATLAS. Published at £10.

Facsimile-Atlas to the early history of Cartography with reproductions of the most important Maps printed in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries; the text translated from the Swedish original by J. A. Ekelöf and Clements R. Markham; in one volume royal folio, half morocco; containing 51 large maps printed as separate plates, and 84 maps of minor size incorporated with the letterpress. Stockholm, 1889

7 10 0

An admirably scientific work which may be regarded as almost exhaustive of the subject. Jomard and Santarem might be said to have produced an imperfect first volume of an Illustrated History of Chartography treating irregularly upon the manuscript sources; Nordenskiöld's atlas may be called the complete second volume dealing with the entire printed or engraved material. The following lists of contents will exhibit the nature and importance of the book. It is indispensable as furnishing by far the best apparatus for studying the growth of geographical science, and the gradual enlargement of knowledge with regard to the surface of the globe.

Bernard Quaritch, 15 Piccadilly.

Contents.

- I. The geographical Atlas of Ptolemy. P. 1—9.
- II. Editions of Ptolemy's Geography. P. 9—29.
- III. Pseudo-editions of Ptolemy. Ptolemy's errors and merits. P. 29—34.
- IV. Ancient, non-Ptolemaic maps. P. 35—52.
- V. Extension of Ptolemy's Oikumene towards the north and north-west. P. 52—61.
- VI. The first maps of the new World, and of the newly discovered parts of Africa and Asia. P. 62—71.
- VII. Terrestrial globes from the 15th and the first part of the 16th century. P. 71—83.
- VIII. Map-projections. P. 84—98.
- IX. The end of the early period of cartography, 1520—1550. P. 98—116.
- X. The transition to, and the beginning of the modern period. Jacopo Gastaldi. Philip Apianus. Abraham Ortelius. Gerard Mercator. P. 116—134.

Maps reproduced by photolithography.

All, excepting No. LI, reproduced in full size; in the text designated with NT. and Roman numeral.

I—XXVII. Maps printed from corresponding plates in the editions of PTOLEMY issued in Rome, 1478, 1490, 1507, and 1508.

The reproductions are based on a copy of the edition of 1490, compared with two copies of the edition of 1478, one copy of the edition of 1507, and one of the edition of 1508, all in the author's private collection, except one of the copies of the edition of 1478 which belongs to the Library of the University at Göttingen.

An attempt to construct a critical text from the printed Spanish letter (at Milan), the Latin quarto of Rome, 1493, and the Spanish MS. letter found at Valencia.

—— Spanish Letter. Forgery of the quarto.

Carta en Español al Escribano de Racion, de las Islas halladas en las Indias . . 4 leaves 4to. bound in red morocco extra

One of the two or three forgeries fabricated by swindlers in imitation of the genuine quarto letter in the Ambrosian library. Of this forgery five copies were struck off; of the other two forgeries probably the same number, or perhaps less. In any case there must be about a dozen such things in existence, most of them perhaps in South America; and it is worth while preserving specimens as a safeguard against fraud.

From its size and general appearance, this edition of the Spanish text must have been issued about the same time as the Latin letters, and in imitation of them; perhaps in Naples.

Only six other copies known. One of them fetched 2200 dollars at the Barlow sale in New York in the earlier part of 1890.

This is probably the third edition printed in 1493 of the Columbus Letter in Latin, and is the most generally correct representation of the text. It is the one which

Mr. Major and others regarded as the first of the four editions which appeared in that year; and was considered by Brunet to be the third, and by M. Harrisse to be the fourth.

A lovely book, worthy of a king's library.

Its raison d'être in this catalogue is the fact that it contains a long account of the savages who were brought to Rouen (from Newfoundland) in 1507. It is therefore probably the first book in the French language which treats upon the New World. The passage occurs on p. 247, and runs as follows:—

Lon dit et il mest venu a memoire que aulcun temps par avant.

Et de ceste isle appelee Terre neufve furent par aulcuns du pays de Normandie conduicts et amenes sept

homes saulvages au port de Rouen ensemble leur navire leurs vestemens : et aulcunes armures. Ils sont de asses noire couleur et ont asses grosses leffres en la bouche : et si portent auscunes stigmates ou signes de cicatrice en la face. Et depuis loreille jusques au meilieu du menton ont une noire et obscure veine qui leur descend par leurs maschoires. Leurs crins ou cheveulx sont noirs et gros comme queue de cheval. Ils ne ont jamais barbe ne commencement den avoir par toute leur vie : et si ne ont pareillement aucun poil en tout le corps fors leurs cheveulx et les sourcilz. Ils portent sur eulx ung bauldrier ceinct auquel y a une petite bourse qui est comme a couvrir leurs membres honteux et ils formēt leurs langages des leffres en parlant et si ne ont quelque religion ne maniere de vivre raisonnablement. Leur navire est comme une escorche de boys que ung homme pourroit facilemet lever a une main dessus ses espaulles. Ils ont pour leurs armeures chascun ung arc tendu et ben de cordes de boyaulx ou de nerfs de bestes. Leurs traicts ou saiettes sont de cannes emmanchees de pierres ou aultrement de os de poisson. Leurs viandes sont chairs rosties et boyvent eaves tout seulement. Ils ne ont aulcun usaige de pain ni de vin ne de pecunes | dor | ou dargent. Ilz vont et cheminent nudz par la terre | ou ilz sont seulement vestus de peaulz de bestes : comme de Cerfz | Ours | Veaulx marins et tous leurs semblables. Leur region est paralelle plus soubz occident du septieme climat que la Gallicane region dessus occident.

A most interesting collection, giving all the private and official accounts of the Nova Scotia and Acadia questions, the fishery in Canço bay, and all the disputed claims between the English and French with regard to the frontiers and border settlements in the West Indies. and near the line of the St. Laurence; and including the original commission issued in 1722 to Daniel Pulteney, and signed by George I, "George R" at the beginning and "G R" at the end. Towards the middle of the volume (which is chiefly concerned with the years 1718-20, and which was evidently one of a series of books kept in the Colonial Office of the time) we come upon the copy of a letter from Laurence Vanden Bosh to Governor Nicholson of Maryland. It is dated from Sassifrix 19 October 1694, and has a large MS. map of the lower course and the mouths of the Mississippi. This is followed by five long pages of extracts from letters of Governor Nicholson, Governor Blake, and others, concerning a scheme to prevent the French from utilising the Mississippi.—Another large map at the end of the book shows "Canço Harbour the eastmost land of Nova Scotia. By Capt. Young." This was in connexion with the fishery dispute.—We find also ADDISON here, in his capacity of Secretary of State, receiving and answering letters on those questions.

The words "Terra Iaua" occur close to the long coast which runs from 9 to 55 degrees of South Latitude. It is known that the name Greater Java was applied by the early navigators to the coasts of New Guinea and Australia. The artist who decorated Vallard's map has ornamented the interior of this land with figures such as could only have been seen in Lesser Java; but he was probably misled by the name Iaua.

BARTHOLOMEO DA LI SONNETTI [ZAM-BERTO] (ISOLARIO), 4to. gothic letter, with 49 woodcut maps; citron morocco extra, gilt edges, by
C. Smith [sine nota, sed Venetiis, circa 1480] 24 0 0

"One of the rarest volumes of early Italian poetry," and at the same time, the earliest special Atlas of the Mediterranean. The first five pages are occupied by a metrical introduction. On the sixth a sonnet begins, which is devoted to the Island of Cerigo, opposite to it is given a woodcut map; then follow the sonnets on Crete, Rhodes, etc., in due succession. The maps are simple outlines, without any names of places. The subject of the last sonnet is Cyprus, the concluding leaf being the map of that island.

The present copy accords exactly with the description given by Brunet. It consists of fifty-six leaves, without either pagination or signatures. The author gives his name on the fifth page thus—

"Per aprobar questa opereta fata per me bartolomeo da li soneti intendo de monstrar con veri effeti quanto che londa egiea abia cerchatta . . ."

The first three lines are a dedication which contains an elaborate reduction of the sovereign's name to numerals. They run thus—

Al Diuo Cinque cento cinque e diece
Tre cinque a do Mil nulla tre e do un cento Nulla . .

Cinque cento=D, cinque V, diece X; tre=3 or Z;
cinque=V, a=A, do=ii, i.e. n or N, mil=M, nulla O, tre Z, e E, do N, un=I, cento=C, nulla=O. The union of those symbols makes the name DVX ZVAN MOZENICO, i.e. the Doge who ruled from 1477 to 1485.

Small folio, a fine and perfect copy, with all the woodcuts, in pale brown morocco extra, by Lortic, blind-tooled after a sixteenth-century pattern

Mogunt. 1486 50 0 0

EXCESSIVELY RARE in such superb and perfect condition.

The frontispiece is one of the finest and most beautiful efforts of design and execution which have been achieved at any period of the art. The views of cities were also remarkable performances, that of Venice being a singularly effective panorama.

The designer of the woodcuts in this work, who was Erhart Reuwich of Utrecht, has been described as deserving to rank with the very foremost of the time. In point of fact, the illustrations to Breydenbach formed a new epoch in the history of the Art of wood-engraving and book-illustration, and the engraver, whose name is unfortunately unknown, deserves no less credit than the designer.

A wretchedly bad and imperfect copy fetched £26 at the Gennadius sale.

BREYDENBACH. Title: Dis buch ist innhaltend die heiligē reysen | gein Iherusalem zu dem heiligen grab | vnd furbasz zu der hochgelobten jung | frowen vnd merteryn sant katheryn, sm. folio. Gothic letter, 49 and 48 lines per page, with all the large folding woodcut views, etc.; some leaves mended; bds. RARE s. l. & a (? The frontispiece of the first edition was not reproduced in this. All the other woodcuts are closely copied from those in Reuwich's edition, but not from the same blocks. The binder has removed all the illustrations to the end of the book, and consequently given to the text, at first sight, the appearance of being imperfect. The book is, however, complete.

A very imperfect copy fetched £16 at the Gennadius sale.

EXCESSIVELY RARE WHEN IN THIS COMPLETE CONDITION. The large View of Venice (which is the most interesting of all the plates) is nearly always wanting; and the same may be said of the panorama of Jerusalem and Palestine.

These were THE FIRST COPPER ENGRAVINGS EXECUTED IN FRANCE.

Le Huën went to Palestine with the Archbishop of Cambray in 1487, but as on his return he found Breydenbach's narrative of the 1483 Pilgrimage in print decorated with woodcuts, he thought he could not do better than turn it into French and publish it as his own work with copies of the illustrations. It is true that he mentions his predecessor, and states that he incorporated him.

The first part consists of Nicole Le Huen's paraphrase of Breydenbach ; the second is an independent History of the Crusades, and of the Saracens from 730 to 1517.

The binding of the first copy is a pretty example of the work of the man who used to bind for Marguerite de Valois about 1600—probably one of the Eves.

On the title there is some writing, including the inscription "Ce present liure ma este donne par Monsieur de Fonteny Parisien au moys de May 15810. PDesforges". The number intended was apparently 1590.

A philosophical book of great interest. The maps illustrate the latest state of knowledge concerning the Southern Hemisphere; and the text helped to stimulate those expeditions of Cook, Bougainville, and others, by which the lands of that part of the world were soon to be explored and correctly laid down.

VERY RARE. This Scot was in Russia about 1596 or 1597, when an embassy arrived from the Sultan of the Crim Tartars. The head of the Legation was Antonio Spinola, a man of Genoese origin; and Bruce became friendly with him. The result of their conversations was this book, addressed to George Talbot, of the family of the Earl of Shrewsbury.

BRY'S COLLECTION OF VOYAGES, Colbert's and Count Hoym's copy. First Edition of the united Grands et Petits Voyages. 25 parts bound into 6 vols. folio, with an immense number of maps and plates engraved by Theodorus and Johannes Theodorus de Bry, and by Matthæus Merian; blue morocco extra, gilt edges (by Padeloup), with Count Hoym's insignia on the back and sides

Francofurti, 1590-1634 500 0 0

Count Hoym bought this copy at the sale of Colbert's library in 1728, and caused it to be bound by
A. M. Padeloup for him. At that time, the appendix of Part XI of the Grands Voyages was wanting, as well as the whole of Part XII; their places being taken by the Herrera of Amsterdam, 1622 (equivalent to Part XII), and the Philoponus of Augsburg, 1621 (a useful addition).
I have now caused the two imperfections to be supplied, and the set is therefore a most desirable copy of the famous collection. All the parts being of what may be called the original issue, the set does not of course comprise the Appendix to Part I of the Petits Voyages, that appendix having been issued only with the second edition of the part in 1625; nor does it contain the Elenchus which Merian printed in 1634.

As for anything which could be justly called an imperfection, the following is an exact statement:—In the Petits Voyages, Part XII, two maps are wanting (the Mogul Empire and China), and there is a hole in one leaf of text. In the Grands Voyages, Part XIII, the map of North Brazil has portion of the bottom torn away.

London by I. Okes . . 1638 3 10 0

RARE. It is one of the earliest and most valuable of the English accounts of India. The author went from Masulipatam to Bengal in 1632. He speaks of "Hacklewick's Voyages," and he uses "Rogger" for Raja; but his facts are clearly stated.

BUCANIERS OF AMERICA: or, a True

(Intro) Account of the most remarkable Assaults committed of late years upon the Coasts of the West Indies, by the Bucaniers of Jamaica and Tortuga, both English and French. Wherein are contained more especially, The unparallel'd Exploits of Sir Henry Morgan . . . now faithfully rendered into English . . . 4 parts or 2 vols. bound in 1, small 4to. First Edition of both volumes, portraits, maps, and plates; fine copy, in calf (binding mended) William Crooke, 1684(-85) 12 0 0

The first three parts were written in Dutch by the Buccaneer who is styled on the title of the original text (1678) A. O. Exquemelin; on the title of the French translation Alexandre Olivier Oexmelin; in the Spanish translation Juan Esquemeling, and on the English title John Esquemeling. The translator's name is not known. The fourth part was written by the English Buccaneer, Basil Ringrose.

A complete copy of the first edition is not often seen. What usually occurs is Vol. I of the first edition alone; or Vol. I of the second edition combined with Vol. II of the first.

William Crooke, 1684(-85)

The addition announced on the title simply refers to the matter of Part IV (or Vol II), i.e. Ringrose's Account of Sharp's Voyage. The date of 1685 is obtained from William Crooke's Catalogue of Books printed and sold by him, which occupies the last five pages of the book.

One of the rarest and most valuable of the early English accounts of Carolina. There was no copy in either the Barlow or the Ives collection ; a sufficient proof of the rarity of the book. Its intrinsic worth and importance are evident from an examination.

Chief Justice Logan was the second of the three famous worthies of Pennsylvania, of whom William Penn was the first, and Benjamin Franklin the third. Franklin's preface to the book describes it as "this first Translation of a Classic in this Western World," and expresses a hope that "Philadelphia shall become the Seat of the American Muses."

It is a masterpiece of translation and of typography, and, by its combination of the two great Pennsylvanian names, has deservedly attained to the rank of an American classic indispensable to every collector of books illustrating the progress of art and science in the New World.

A very curious and rare volume. The first piece gives the Chinese and Manchu texts (with a Latin version) of the petition of inquiry presented by the Jesuits to Khang Hi, in which they stated their own view of Confucian doctrine, and begged for the Emperor's approbation of it. He freely gave it, and hence this publication. The one work is described by Brunet under BREVIS, the other under RELATIO.

EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION. It is a book of grand and sumptuous appearance, printed in very large Gothic type with 32 lines to the page. This work revolutionised the science of Navigation, and was the first to point out the deflection of the needle. The date at which it was written appears in some of the passages of the earlier part of the book as 1545, but a year or two probably elapsed before the author could finish it and get it ready for the press.

The instructions for map-making are not the least interesting part of the text, and would be found useful by many persons who are unable to understand the principle of the wind-roses and rhumb-lines which cover the surface of old hydrographic charts. But even here the acute intelligence of Cortes indicated the defects of the plane system long before Mercator.

Small 4to. engraved and letterpress titles, the engraved title having a world-map and some figures delicately executed; with eight separate engravings; olive morocco extra, gilt edges, RARE Strassburg, 1629 12 0 0

The engraved title is "Diurnal und Historische Beschreybung der Nassawischen Flotten so under dem Admiral Jacob l'Heremite . . ." and says nothing of a Flemish original. Decker accompanied the expedition as Captain of soldiers, and when they reached the Texel in March, 1626-27, he and his men were despatched to Java for another year or two. The last four pages are an account of his personal experiences in 1627-29. All the preceding text is a slightly modified translation of the Dutch journal published in 1626. In the De Bry and Hulsius collections, Decker's narrative was used in preference to the Dutch one.

Faithfully taken out of the Report . . By Philip Nichols Preacher . . Set forth by Sr. Francis Drake Baronet (his Nephew) now liuing . .

Small 4to. with an engraved portrait of Drake on the title; the date cut off the bottom of the title-page; red morocco, gilt edges

E. A. for Nicholas Bourne . . [1626] 3 10 0

First edition of a celebrated narrative, which has been reprinted by the Hakluyt Society.

—— second edition of the same work, small 4to. last leaf mended; a large and fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford

Printed for Nicholas Bourne . . 1628 12 10 0

Two engraved portraits of Drake are mounted and added as preliminary leaves; one of them being by William Marshall. Bound up with the work is the following:—

THE WORLD ENCOMPASSED BY SIR FRANCIS DRAKE, Being His next Voyage to that to Nombre de Dios . . collected out of the Notes of Master FRANCIS FLETCHER . . Printed by E. P. for Nicholas Bourne . . 1635. This is a very rare book.

—— SIR FRANCIS DRAKE REVIVED . . Being a Summary and true Relation of foure severall Voyages made by the said Sir Francis Drake to the West Indies . . Small 4to. portrait; red morocco extra, gilt edges £ s. d.

. . for Nicholas Bourne, 1653(-52) 7 10 0

Drake Revived; The World Encompassed; West Indian Voyage; Relation of another Voyage, 1595. The last three were printed in 1652, and have their separate titles; the Drake Revived was printed in 1653 under the editorship of R. D., and the title extended so as to make it embrace the other three. This forms the first collected edition of Drake's Voyages.

DRAKE (Francis G.) THE INDIAN TRIBES OF THE UNITED STATES, their history, antiquities, customs, religion, arts, language, traditions, oral legends, and myths, 2 vols. imp. 4to. with 100 large steel engravings; cloth Philadelphia, 1884 2 0 0

This a compilation of great value, being an attempt to place before the public in a convenient and accessible form the results of the life-long labours of Schoolcraft, not merely those which he recorded in his own great book, but also those which he performed on various later occasions. The editor is the son of Samuel G. Drake, who wrote the Book of the Indians in 1833.

DOMENECH, Manuscrit Pictographique Américain précédé d'une Notice sur l'Idéographie des Peaux-Rouges, 8vo. 119 pp. of Text, and 228 lithographed pages, hf. morocco extra Paris, 1860 1 12 0

— another copy, with the supplement entitled LA VERITÉ sur le livre des Sauvages, in 1 vol. royal 8vo. hf. morocco extra, uncut 1860 2 10 0

Bound in at the end of the volume is J. Petzholdt's Buch der Wilden, Dresden, 1861, in German and French.

Critics have been too hard on the Abbé Domenech. The notions and the pictures indicate an amount of physical knowledge not realisable before the age of thirteen at least. But the ideas of drawing are not superior to those of a European child of four or five; yet there is a vigour, steadiness, and uniformity in their lines which no infant's hand could achieve. This points to the authorship of some Indian who had for a time been taught by German missionaries. The title might be changed without error into Livre d'un Sauvage.

Bourdeaus, S. Millanges, 1608-14 16 16 0

A rare work, the 3 vols. of which are not often found together.

Although the East Indies, China, and Japan, were chiefly considered by the author, a very large portion of his work treats upon the natives of Brazil, Paraguay, and the Carib coasts of South America.

The Discovery of America by Columbus is not mentioned, but the Portuguese voyage to India is. Under 1509 there is a paragraph concerning the seven savages brought to Rouen in that year from the island which is called Terra Nova.

With regard to printing, there is an interesting note. Its discovery is attributed to John Guntenberg zum lungen, a knight of Mentz, and to the date 1440, the entry being made under 1457.

vellum gilt, fine copy B. A. and T. P. 1633 8 10 0

The author, whose full name appears on p. 69, states that he made his journey to India about twenty years previously, and remained in that land for four years. The book is almost unknown, there being but few copies extant. The copy in the British Museum, this one and perhaps two or three more, are probably all that remain.

- This voyage remains a problem. It is generally supposed to be a false claim to have achieved the North-West Passage as early as 1588. The Spanish original exists, and the navigator unquestionably made a voyage in the latitudes he speaks of, at the time indicated. The three engraved leaves contain 12 maps, five of them after the designs in the Spanish MS., six after various designs of early hydrographers, and a large map in elucidation of the subject.

First Edition of the first book in English on the discovery of Australia. There is an absurd note in the Huth catalogue, stating that this account refers to land below Magellan's straits and not to our Australia. It was written as a consequence of the voyage in which Torres Strait and the Gulf of Carpentaria were discovered by Paez de Torres, whom Quiros accompanied; and the latter begged the King to give him the monopoly of further research.

GILBERT (Sir Humphrey) A DISCOVERSE OF A DISCOVERIE FOR A NEW PASSAGE TO CATAIA.
Written by Sir Hvmfrey Gilbert, Knight.

Small 4to. with the folding woodcut map in facsimile; old calf

Henry Middleton for Richarde Ihones, 1576 40 0 0

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Bolton Corney's copy fetched £46 in 1871, and a badly restored copy (with facsimile map) brought a long price in a London sale in 1883.
This is the only copy that has passed through my hands;
and there was none in either the Barlow or the Ives collections. It is an essay to prove the practicability of the North-West Passage. Gilbert, who was drowned off Newfoundland in 1583, is renowned as the first Englishman who attempted to found a colony in the New World.
—There is an interesting preface by George Gascoine, and a Prophetical Sonnet by him concerning the future fame of Sir Humphrey.

The book is bound up with the First Edition of "The Worlde or an historicall description of the most famous kingdomes and commonweales," translated [from Botero] by I R [Robert Johnson], John Faggard, 1601.
This first edition is a very rare book, unknown to the bibliographers.

Peter Goos was only the publisher, but his name is used to designate the various issues of these remarkable and important charts. They include nine maps of special interest to the American student, besides the general World-map. The two maps of Eastern Asia and the South Sea, are similarly interesting to the Australian collector, and show traces of their derivation from the charts of Tasman's voyage.

Basileæ, apud Jo. Hervagium, mense || martio, anno M.D.XXXII. (1532) 7 10 0

FIRST EDITION; being also the first Collection of Voyages produced in Germany.

The collection of the various works of which the Novus Orbis is composed, was made by Joannes Huttich.

Grynæus wrote the preface (or rather dedication) as a friend of the publisher.

The book begins with Munsteri (Seb.) Typi cosmographici declaratio; then proceeds to reprint the Itinerarium Portugallensium. This is followed by Vesputii Quatuor Navigationes (from the Cosmographia); Emanuelis Epistolæ ad Leonem X, 1513 (first printed at Rome); Vartomanni (Lud.) Navigatio (from the Latin translation made by Madrignano); Broccardi Terræ Sanctæ Descriptio (from the edition printed at Venice in 1519); Marcus Paulus de regionibus Orientalibus (from the text printed, as is thought, by Gerard Leeuw); Haithon de Tartaris (from the edition printed at Hugenau in 1529); Michov de Sarmatia (it had been printed at Cracow in 1517, at Augsburg in 1518); Paulus Jovius de Legatione Moschovitarum (it had been printed at Rome in 1525); Petri Martyris de Insulis nuper repertis decas quarta (printed at Basel in 1521); and Stella de Borussia antiquitatibus (it had been printed at Basel in 1518).

GRYNÆUS, with the Finæus Map. NOVVS

— the same, a very large and very fine copy in old calf, from the Sunderland library

Paris. apud Joannem Parvum, 1532 12 12 0

The famous cordiform map of Oronce Finé is seldom seen. It is one of the most curious and ingenious productions of early Cartography. Nordenskiöld says, "In a geographical point of view this map far surpasses that of the Basel edition, as well in its greater richness of names and topographical details, as in due attention being here paid to the latest geographical discoveries."

There is no difference between the two issues except in their title-pages, Jean Petit and Galliot du Pré having shared the expense of the edition between them.

The Paris book contains exactly the same matter as the Basel edition of 1532.

HAKLUYT (Richard) THE PRINCIPALL NAVIGATIONS, VOIAGES AND DISCOVERIES OF THE ENGLISH NATION . . at any time within the compasse of these 1500 yeares.

Small folio, First Edition, 8 preliminary leaves including title, pp. 1-825, and 5 leaves of Table; bound George Bishop and Ralph Newberie, 1589 18 0 0

—— the same, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford; with a facsimile of the rare MOLLINEUX MAP of 1600 inserted (mounted on linen) 1589 18 18 0

The Barlow copy fetched 160 dollars.

Both these copies have the rare six leaves of Drake's Voyage round the World, which Hakluyt says in the preface he had not been allowed to print. They are inserted in the middle of sheet M and marked as signatures M 4-9, so as to enlarge that sheet from 6 to 12 leaves. This addition must have taken place in few instances. In both copies, also, Sir Jerome Bowes' account of the expedition to Russia is given in its corrected form, "printed this second time according to the true copie I received . . for the correction of the errours in the former impression."—Neither copy has the pro-tem. map which Hakluyt inserted while awaiting the great work of Emeric Mollineux.

Both these copies have the rare original issue of the "Voyage to Cadiz" (pp. 607-619 in Vol. I) which was suppressed, and is usually supplied by a modern reprint; and the facsimile of the Mollineux map is inserted in both.

HAKLUYT'S Collection of the Early Voyages, Travels, and Discoveries, of the English Nation,
a new edition [by R. H. Evans], with additions, 5 vols. royal 4to. calf

1809-12 14 14 0

The first four volumes are reprinted from the edition of 1599-1600; the fifth volume contains ten various works on geographical research which Hakluyt issued himself, or which seemed to be appropriate augmentations of the "Voyages." They are as follows:—

[Houtman's] Voyage by Ships of Holland to the East Indies (translated by W. Phillip), 1598; Report of a Voyage to Java by Ships of Amsterdam . . (1600);
Bruton's Voyage to Bengalla . . 1638; Watreman's Fardle of Factions, 1555; The Conquest of the Grand Canaries . . 1599; Peter Martyr's History of the West Indies (1612-28); Virginia richly valued . . 1609; The Discovery of the Bermudas . . 1610; Late Voyage of Spaine and Portingale . . 1589.

HAKLUYT (Richard) THE PRINCIPAL NAVIGATIONS, VOYAGES, TRAFFIQUES AND DISCOVERIES OF THE ENGLISH NATION . . at any time within the compasse of these 1600 yeres . . 3 vols. sm.
folio, russia

1599-1599-1600 24 0 0

As the date of Vol. I shows, and the altered title (in which the reference to the Voyage to Cadiz is omitted), this is a second issue—at least of the first volume. Curious to say, the original suppressed leaves of that narrative are inserted here, although they do not belong to this issue. A facsimile of the Mollineux map is inserted.

—— another copy, exactly as issued in 1599-1600, i.e. without the Cadiz Voyage, but WITH THE GREAT MAP FOR WHICH EVERYONE LOOKS IN VAIN, IN ITS EARLIEST STATE; 3 vols. in 2, fine and large copy in the original binding

Only three copies of the Map are known to be extant in this early issue or state, namely, one in the British Museum, one in America, and this one. (There exist nine impressions of a later state, in which an inscription was added referring to the land around Magellan's Straits.) Mr. Corte has shown that Edward Wright, the author of the "Errors in Navigation, 1599," was the real inventor of the so-called Mercator-system of projection, and that to him the fundamental idea of the Hakluyt map is due. This is not incompatible with the idea suggested by Hakluyt himself, that Emeric Mollineux was the draughtsman or engraver. Hakluyt's sense is plain—I here give you a good general map, pending the completion of a great work by Mollineux. He calls that great work an exact terrestrial globe, but he plainly refers to something for which the Linschoten map was a substitute, and must therefore have meant a map of the world. Such a work, with the constant accretion of new information, might well have been begun and changed and begun again before it reached the engraver's final stage; and such a process, under the watchful care of Edward Wright, might have not been accomplished till 1599 or 1600. Even then it was not done with, as we see from the additional inscription referred to above. The excessive rarity of this Wright-Mollineux map is to be accounted for by the probability that seamen carried the copies away with them and teachers of navigation had them placed upon boards or walls.

HA KLUYT (Richard) VIRGINIA RICHLY VALUED,
By the description of the maine land of Florida
. . Out of the foure yeeres . . discouerie . . of Don Ferdinando de Soto . . Written by a Portugall gentleman of Eluas . . Translated . . by Richard Haklvyt . . Small 4to. fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford

Felix Kyngston for Matthew Lownes . . 1609 45 0 0

VERY RARE. It is, in fact, one of the rarest of Hakluyt's books; and is missing even in the Huth library. The one in the Ives collection fetched only 90 dollars, but it was imperfect, wanting the leaf before the title, bearing the initial A within a typographical ornament.

The name of the original author is unknown. Of his Portuguese text, printed at Evora in 1557, only two or three copies are known.

The Hakluyt Society has reprinted the above translation from the reissue made in 1611.

John Beale for William Welby, 1615 63 0 0

One of the most valuable documents of the early history of Virginia. It contains also the first printed account of the romantic fortunes of the famous Princess Pocahontas; and includes letters of Sir Thomas Dale, Alexander Whitaker, and John Rolfe himself, the happy bridegroom, who solemnly denies any other motive than piety for his marriage.

He states that he went on a pilgrimage to the Holy Holy Land in 1489, and then extended his journey through parts of Syria and Egypt. He then asserts that he went to India and visited the Christians of St. Thomas, where for a short while he was held captive by a king named Brandican.

His name was John of Hees (in Holland), not John of Hesse.

His travels cover the years 1609-1621, that is thirteen years ; but here he exaggerates their duration to fifteen years. This complete narrative was finished at the Charterhouse in 1623 ; the volume which had appeared in 1614 and 1616 having comprised only the first Travels of the author (1609-13).

Nicholas Okes, 1632 5 5 0

Here the thirteen years are exaggerated into nineteen, for some curious reason. The matter of this edition is decidedly enlarged and altered from that of 1632, but it simply goes over the same ground and the same time. It is the author's final recension of his work, and has many rewritten pages. There is considerable addition in the account of Ireland.

Ludolf, Rector or Vicar of Suchen, sometimes called Petrus de Suchen, wrote in 1350 this account of his Oriental travels during five years, 1336-41; saying that, as many others who had made one short pilgrimage found plenty to write about, so he with his long experience of Eastern residence might relate a little. It is a narrative of considerable interest, as the reverend author seems to have been a very observant traveller. He describes even the Western part of the Mediterranean, the Italian islands, and the two Spanish kingdoms: Aragon and Grap. (This last is the Moorish kingdom called Algarve or Al-Gharab.)

Romæ in aedibus. F. Minitii Calvi Anno.

M.D.XXIII mense Novembri. (1523) 25 0 0

The honour of ranking as Editio Princeps of the narrative which describes the first circumnavigation of the globe, is disputed between the Roman book of November, 1523, and the Cologne book of January, 1523. There was no copy of either of them in the Barlow and Ives collections. Is the Cologne edition two months later or ten months earlier than the one printed at Rome? It was usual in both cities to count the year as beginning with January 1, but there never was a uniform practice anywhere.

The Secretary, Maximilian, wrote the book in Spain, from an oral examination of the commander and some of the crew of the "Victoria," late in October, 1521. He sent his MS. to the Cardinal of Saltzburg, whom it reached probably by the beginning of 1522.—In or about November, 1522, the Bishop of Terni was sent by the Pope to Nürnberg, where he obtained a manuscript copy of Maximilian's recital, which he forwarded to Rome to the printer Calvus. The latter must have had the affair in hand for eight or nine months before he brought out his edition, which was evidently believed to be the first publication of the work. In the Cologne edition there are no license and prefatory matter, such as might be expected to accompany a first edition; but on the other hand the text, if incorrect here and there, is on the whole nearer than the Roman to the original text, and it has the formal inscription of place and date (Valladolid, 24 Oct. 1522) which is omitted in the other.

2 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. hf. bd. (Venetia) 1536 16 16 0

EXTREMELY RARE. It comprises a translation of the two existing narratives, namely that of Maximilian and that of Antonio Pigafetta. This book was evidently designed to form a fourth part of the Venetian collection of Voyages published by Da Sabbio, of which three parts had appeared in 1534. The editor's preface is curious and important.

Extremely interesting on account of its age and the text which it yields. The one illuminated initial, floreated on a gold ground, has three branching extensions scantily foliated with ivy leaves, in the bare and simple style which prevailed about 1350-60. The writing is of the usual style current towards the close of the fourteenth century.—As a specimen of the text, a passage is extracted below:—

Ie Iehan de mandeuille chlr., ia soit ce q ie ne soie degnes, nes et nourris danglet're de la ville de Saint Albain qui passe la mer lan Mil ccc & xxii le iour Saint Michiel Car ie en ay p. mainte ale et cheuauchie auec bonne copaignie dieu grace, et sachiez que ie eusse ce liure mis en latin pour plus briefment deuiser, mais pour ce q plus's entendēt mieulx Romans q latin ie lay mis en francois pour ce que chacun lentende et q les seign'rs et ch'lrs et les autres nobles homes qui ne sceuēt point de latin ou pou, et qui ont este oultremer sachent et entendent se ie di voir ou non et se ie erre en deuisant pour nō souuenance ou autrement q il puissent adiouster & amander Car chose de loing temps passe p la veue tournēt en ombli, et memoire de home ne puet mie tout retenir ne tout cōprendre.

There is a continual modification of the text from that of the above MS. At the end the year of return is given as 1367, and the statement of thirty-five years' absence is omitted.

An eclectic translation ; so learnedly and so profusely commentated that it may fairly be regarded as the final form of Marco Polo in English. There is however some work left for new editors, as Col. Yule translated, not from what he considered the original form, but from the second recension, making additions here and there from the first.
The definite history of the text is not really made manifest as yet.

VERY RARE. The famous designs which appeared here for the first time were copied and reproduced over and over again in successive reprints and translations of the work, and finally attributed to the great painter Titian. They were really the designs of Nicolay himself, engraved upon copper by Louis Danet and another.

— another copy, having the two leaves of Index in facsimile ; old red morocco, gilt edges 1508 18 18 0

On the back of the title there are some lines of Latin verse, intituled " Presbyteri Francisci Tanti Cornigeri Epigramma Ad . . Mediolani Senatus Vicecācellariū. De Itinerario Portugallensium. Ab Archāgelo Careualensi Latinitate donato." The seven leaves which follow contain a dedication to the same Vice-Chancellor, " Domino Iafredo karoli," by the translator himself, " Archangelus Madrignanus Careualensis."—These eight leaves are succeeded by two leaves of Index which are rare and frequently missing. The text of the work then proceeds on 88 leaves, foliated.

The book is a faithful version of the first issue of the Paesi, and consists of 142 chapters.

First French edition of the contents of the Paesi. There are two other editions of contemporary production, which, because they are entirely without indication of date, Brunet and HARRISSE were illogical enough to regard as anterior, and as having perhaps appeared in the year 1515.—This is unquestionably the first of the three, being the only one containing the royal privilege, dated 1516, which forbids any other impression for two years. It is also the only one containing the two diagrams of constellations, which were omitted in the two dateless reprints.

2 large folding maps, engraved title, and 8 elegant plates, fine copy in vellum
Roma, Bartolomeo Grassi, 1591 9 0 0

The number of copies which contain the maps is extremely limited. "Men who know" scout the Pigafetta map as based upon imaginary theories; but those who do not expect scientific observations and precise measurements from a traveller of the sixteenth century, must admit that there is much here in anticipation of the supposed new discoveries of the latest investigators.
 Here for certain are the three lakes Tanganyika, Nyanza, and Nyassa, not quite correctly drawn or placed, but still in sufficiently near relation to be identified. If they were not drawn from some source of authentic information, whence did they come? What a marvellous guess it would have been!

This book is a relation of the travels of Duarte
 Lopez between 1578 and 1589.

Small 4to. containing 8 woodcuts full-page size, and having THE TWO FOLDING MAPS ENGRAVED BY WILLIAM ROGERS; olive morocco extra, gilt edges London, Printed by Iohn Wolfe . 1527 12 12 0

THE ONLY PERFECT COPY THAT HAS EVER BEEN IN MY HANDS. The rarity of the maps is so great that they are usually missing, either wholly or in part. One is a map of Africa, 24 $\frac{3}{4}$ by 16 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches in size; the other a map of Congo, 20 by 16 $\frac{3}{4}$. These dimensions have to be carefully observed.

COLLATION: 11 preliminary leaves (thus distributed): Title "A Report etc.," 1 leaf; dedication to the Primate, 5 pp.; The Translator to the Reader, 11 pp.; leaf bearing the signature A, otherwise a blank; title "A Reporte etc.," 1 leaf; text, pp. 1-217; table, 3 pp. The eight large woodcuts form part of the paginated text.

Mr. Huth's copy wants the leaf A1, but is otherwise perfect. Thorpe had a perfect copy sixty years ago, and Mr. Boone had a copy about thirty-three years ago which seems to have been perfect; but I can trace no others (except admittedly imperfect copies).

Argentine, Joannes Schott, 1513 36 0 0

This famous edition is the first in which the two American maps above referred to were printed. They had been probably obtained from designs by Vespucci, and as they were in the possession of the St. Dié Academy in 1508 (the production of the Ptolemy being a lengthy labour) they represent the utmost geographical knowledge attainable with regard to America at that date.

volume of 1513, and the maps are from the same blocks in both. The volume would, therefore, serve to complete an imperfect copy of the 1513 book.

CLAYDII PTOLEMAEI GEOGRAPHICAE

ENARRATIONIS libri octo Bilibaldo Pirckeymero interprete . . Folio, with 50 woodcut maps; the title soiled and mended; hf. calf

Argentoragi, Johannes Grieningerus, 1525 7 10 0

First Edition of Pirckheimer's translation, which was so highly praised by Erasmus. The text of the modern maps is not by him, but reproduced from the Ptolemy of 1522.

The maps are 50 in number, upon 49 leaves. They are from the same blocks as were used in the 1522 Ptolemy (the text of which was the version of Angelus), and consequently contain a map (Orbis Typus Universalis) bearing the name AMERICA. The maps were drawn by Laurentius Frisius from the designs or suggestions of Waldseemüller; and, so far as forty-seven of their number go, they are not greatly modified from those in the 1513 Ptolemy.

CLAYDII PTOLEMÆI Geographicæ Enarrationis libri octo ex Bilibaldi Pirckeymheri tralatione . . . a Michaelē Villanouano iam primum recogniti . . Folio, with the same maps

(coloured) as in the 1525 edition; fine copy in old blue morocco extra

Lugduni, Trechsel, 1535 16 0 0

This is the edition which led to the burning of Servetus (Villanovanus) although he was not responsible for the statement brought in testimony against him; since it had already appeared in the modern part of the editions of 1522 and 1525. It is an imputation of falsehood or boasting (injuria aut jactantia puera) against the Biblical writers who had described the rocky and sterile regions of Palestine as "flowing with milk and honey." The edition is therefore rare and noteworthy.

text is based on the Servetus Ptolemy of 1535, but the maps are Münster's own. It is bound up with the

In this revised edition of Münster's Ptolemy, seven of the maps of the 1540 edition were cancelled, and 13 new ones substituted. Besides this, the first world-map was re-engraved with certain modifications. The book is consequently an important one for the American collector.

An Italian translation from the modernised Latin

Ptolemy made by Pietro Andrea Mattiolo, of Siena. The maps are a new set of cartographical illustrations by Gastaldi, and not only form an Atlas of the World, like preceding Ptolemies, but by virtue of the number of those which are devoted to the various parts of the New World, they may be regarded as the first Atlas of America. There had been only single general maps of the Indies in all preceding books.

Of the excessive rarity of this book, an idea may be formed from the fact that the late Mr. Edwin Tross sought for many years before he could obtain a copy to reprint, as he had already reprinted the Voyage. interesting for the career of Drake. The libel was the Spanish commander's report concerning the engagement with the English fleet in which he claimed a greater success than Captain Savile and Sir Thomas Baskerville were inclined to allow. The statement of the latter occupies the last four pages, and a woodcut of an English ship of war in nearly full sail is impressed beneath the "Finis."

- SANUTO (Livio) Geografia . . distinta in XII libri . . ne quali, oltra l'esplicatione di molti luoghi di Tolomeo, e della Bussola e dell' Aguglia, si dichiarano le Provincie . . dell' Africa . . folio, fine engraved title with various compartments of figures, and 12 large folding maps of Africa; hf. vellum gilt Vinegia, Damiano Zenaro, 1588 3 16 0

An important and rare volume, the first atlas which attempted to give something of the interior of Africa. Pigafetta's Congo, it must be remembered, was not printed till 1591, with the map of Duarte Lopez; yet here are the lakes beneath the equator (to which the sources of the Nile are traced), modified from their Ptolemaic forms into what is a very curious likeness of the three lakes as known to the moderns. If we do not choose to identify Sanuto's three lakes with Tanganyika, Victoria Nyanza, and Baringo of Stanley's map, we must confess that he guessed miraculously about them.

SAVAGE. AN ACCOUNT OF THE LATE ACTION OF THE NEW-ENGLANDERS, UNDER THE COMMAND OF SIR WILLIAM PHIPS, AGAINST THE FRENCH at CANADA, sent in a letter from Major Thomas Savage, of Boston, New England (who was present at the Action), to his Brother, Mr. Perez Savage, in London, sm. 4to. old boards, with the bookplate of Charles Viscount Bruce, 1712 London, Thomas Jones, 1691 35 0 0

This tract consists of 8 pages. At the end is a facsimile of an "Indented Bill for 10s" with which the soldiers were paid, but which we are told "will not pass in Trade between Man and Man, nor can these poor Soldiers and Seamen get anything for them to above half their value, they being only used to pay rates with." This unsuccessful expedition cost the Colony of Massachusetts £50,000, "for payment whereof the General Court hath laid Grievous Taxes upon the Inhabitants."

The title has the last line of the publisher's address and small portions of the marginal notes shorn off, otherwise it is a fine healthy copy of this exceedingly rare New England tract.

Amstredam, Ian Iansson, 1619 7 10 0

Le Maire and Schouten sailed together in this famous voyage; the former as the director, the latter as the skipper. Certain jealousies arose on their return and some friends of Schouten hastened to publish this narrative under his name (in 1618), while the recital of Le Maire (based on the same logbook) did not appear till 1622.

A rare and interesting pamphlet of two leaves in small folio is inserted. It is an advertisement in French, but issued by the London authorities for the purpose of requesting foreign Protestants to join in the new settlement under the laws which Locke had formulated. They are recommended to repair to London before the middle of October (this date being altered in ink from the printed words fin d'Aoust). The year is not mentioned, but it must have been 1680.

Spencer, or copies by him of sketches by Lt.-Col. Simcoe, and Lts. Allans and J. Stratton. The Queen's Rangers was a partisan corps composed almost entirely of American Loyalists, and was continually in action during the years 1777-83.

SMITH (Captain John) THE GENERALL HISTORIE of Virginia, New-England, and The Summer Isles . . . sm. folio, First Edition, engraved title having three portraits in the upper border, four maps and two portraits; fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges by Zaehnsdorf

London, Printed by I. D. and I. H. for

Michael Sparkes, 1624 50 0 0

This is an unusually good copy. The map of Virginia is marked with the reference to Purchas, and is consequently of the 1626 issue; the portrait of Matoaka is a modern steel-engraving in exact facsimile of the original; and the title is neatly mounted. The other three maps, and the portrait of the Duchess of Richmond, are all of the genuine original issue of 1624.—The Ould Virginia is before the addition of "Mountaynes forest," "Walden's Oake," and other names in the map; the New England "Printed by Geor. Low," is before the alteration of "Charles Prince" into "Charles now King," and the inscription "Robert Clerke excudit" appears clearly beneath that of "Simon Passæus sculpsit." The Duchess of Richmond is an excellent impression of the original plate by Francisco Delaram.

— THE GENERALL HISTORIE of Virginia, New-England, and the Summer Isles . . sm. folio, engraved title and four maps; very fine and sound copy in the original calf

Edward Blackmore, Anno 1632 40 0 0

With the book-plate of "Sr. John Chester Barr^{tt} of Checkley Bucks" engraved about 1698. The special value of this copy consists in the fact that the work is in its original binding, and has lain undisturbed and unaltered in an old English library ever since. Whoever buys it will have thus the certitude that the maps are precisely in the same state as when the book was published in 1632. In the map of New England, we find the inscription "Printed by James Reeve," the words "Prince of Great Britaine" altered to "nowe King of", and several names of places added, as "Boston", "Salem", etc.—A fine impression of the large plate from Smith's Adventures is also found here, inserted when the book was bound.

(The plate of Matoaka, referred to above, and the facsimile of the Richmond portrait are loosely inserted, and will be given to the purchaser of this volume.)

— another copy, with the engraved title and the four maps, Edward Blackmore, 1632—Smith (Captaine Iohn) The True Travels, Adventures, and Observations, with the rare folding plate in nine compartments, 1630—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, fine copy in an old calf binding (of about 1680-90), with the initials N. T. on the sides 1630-32 45 0 0

In this volume a facsimile of the Duchess of Richmond's portrait, and the same modern engraving of Matoaka as above mentioned, have been inserted. The map of New England is of the 1624 issue before the word "Prince" was altered to "nowe King."

The engraved title of 1624 was thus altered in the later editions. The third head was re-engraved with a crown, and the words "Carolvs princeps" changed to "Carolvs Rex"; Michael Sparkes' name erased in the imprint and Edward Blackmore's substituted.—The map of Virginia was marked with the page-references "1690", "1691", which had been put on the plate when impressions were taken for use in Purchas's Pilgrims in 1626.—The map of Ould Virginia had several new names put on to it after 1626, including "Mountaynes forest" and "Waldens Oake," etc.—The map of the Summer IIs was not altered after 1624, in which year some of the impressions had appeared without the words "Penistons Redoute" and "Printed by Iames Reeve," and others in which they were added.—On the map of New England, the words "Prince of Great Britaine" were after 1626 altered to "nowe King of Great Britaine," the name of Iames Reeve was substituted as the printer for that of Geor. Low, and the inscription "Robert Clerke excudit," which had been half erased in all the previous issues, now almost completely disappeared. The large escutcheon of the Virginia Company was added in the middle of the plate; and in 1632, several alterations and additions were made in the delineation of the River Charles and its banks, showing Boston, and other towns for the first time.

[It is curious that in the original map, at some distance north of Cape Ann, we find on or near the coast the towns of Boston and Hull (and others). These must indicate designations proposed and abandoned, since the true Boston, as well as Salem, was only added after 1632, close to the Charles River.]

THEVENOT, Voyages, 2 vols. roy. folio, LARGE PAPER, fine copy in calf, from the Beckford library

1696 25 0 0

The same as the above, except that instead of the Epistre (2 ll.) of Part I it contains the Avertissement

(1 l.), and Catalogue (1 l.)—it has no separate Title to Part II, nor to the Ambassade à Peking in Part III, and no Privilege to Part II, and wants the map of Pegu and Japan.

THEVENOT, Voyages, 2 vols. folio, calf 1696 12 0 0

Containing all on the list above except: the additional separate titles to parts 2 and 4, and to the Ambassade à Peking (in part 3); the map of Pegu and Japan; and the additional pieces de Atabekiis, etc. (pp. 49-64), and de Familia Albarum Ovium (pp. 77-80). It contains, however, in addition to those pieces mentioned on the list: the title to Voyage de Sr. Acarette à Buenos Ayres sur la riviere de la Plate, et l'Indien (Paris, André Cramoisy, 1672); and the additional piece of which the head-line is "ASGANII SASSONII" (pp. 17-48). The present copy has the Avertissement (1 l.) and Catalogue (1 l.), in addition to the Epistre (2 ll.) of Part I.

graph of the celebrated scholar Ballesdens on the title* Anvers, Christophle Plantin, 1558 16 10 0

In chapter 74, there is an account of Bacallaos and the attempts of Cabot to "dresser là une Nouvelle Angleterre." Chapters 75-82 treat upon Canada, and were derived from oral conversation with Jacques Quartier.

On leaf 150, he describes a certain herbe sechée put into the end of a hollow horn, "laquelle ayant frottée entre leurs mains, y mettent le feu, et en reçoivent la fumée par la bouche par l'autre bout du cornet. Et en prennent en telle quantité qu'elle sort par les yeux et par le nez."

Hans Tucher, with Sebalt Ritter and Otto Spiegel, started from Nürnberg on the 6 May, 1479, for the Holy Land, and reached Venice on the return journey on the 17 March, 1480. His narrative is one of the best and most important of its kind.

This pilgrim is indispensable, says Tobler, in his list of authorities on the Holy Land.

A valuable and very extensive description of India, China, Japan, the Islands of the Eastern Archipelago, and the Cape of Good Hope; their population, productions, and animals.

VAN LOON. Klaer lichtende Noort Ster, ofte ZEE-ATLAS, waer inne vertoont werde de Gelegentheyht van alle de Zee-kusten des Aerdgebodens, royal folio, elegant coloured frontispiece, and 45 double maps, all carefully COLOURED and partly ILLUMINATED, etc. vellum, calf back Amst. 1661 5 5 0

A valuable work, unmentioned by Asher in his excellent Bibliography of the Atlases and Maps relating to the New Netherlands, although its North American charts are different from the Atlases and Charts examined by him. It is unquestionably the best Atlas representing the coasts of the now United States, published up to that time, and proves that the Brothers Van Loon were accurate and painstaking cartographers. Some of the maps are of course reproductions from the great Atlases of Blaeu, Laet, and Jansson, and the name of the latter appears occasionally, but the differences which make the book important are to be found in the delineations of regions which were daily becoming better known, such as the European colonies in North America.

- VANCOUVER (Captain George) A Voyage of Discovery to the North Pacific Ocean, and round the World; in which the coast of North-West America has been carefully examined and accurately surveyed. - VAUGHAN (Sir William). The Golden Fleece Diuided into three Parts . . Transported from Cambrioll Colchos, out of the Southermost Part of the Iland, commonly called the NEW-FOVNDLAND, by Orpheus Iunior [Sir William Vaughan], sm. 4to. the rare map of Newfoundland by Capt. John Mason in admirable facsimile; hf. calf London, Francis Williams, 1626 3 15 0

He planted Newfoundland with Welshmen, spent many years there, and endeavoured in this whimsical book to encourage fresh immigration. More than half the work is a fantastic discussion on manners and customs, in which a number of Shakespearean illustrations may be sought for. In the third book we find mention of many famous English navigators, with reasons for praising or blaming their proceedings. Sir Thomas Button is censured for his lack of knowledge how to prevent scurvy amongst his sailors.

VERY RARE. There was no copy in the Salvá or Heredia collection, and the book is unmentioned by Ticknor, Gallardo, and Brunet.—Harrisse (and, from him, Brunet's continuator) mentions the work but not this edition.

References to America will be found on folios 128 and 211. The author was very irate against the rush for gold in Peru, and the revolutions in society caused by the sudden enrichment of adventurers.

Sine nota (1503) 210 0 0

Bound up with several contemporary tracts, with which it has been united since the early part of the sixteenth century.

The Barlow copy fetched, in 1890, 1200 dollars. This is No. 23 of Harrisse's Bibliotheca America Vetus-tissima, and is so rare that no copy—save that which was in my possession some sixteen years ago—has been seen in the European market for a quarter of a century.

This is the only complete edition of Vespucci's works; and is besides the best work upon the subject of his life and voyages. Varnhagen makes clear many things that have hitherto lain in obscurity, and shows fair reason for considering the narrative of the voyage in 1497 a correct and genuine one.

VINCENT (William) The Commerce and Navigation of the Ancients in the Indian Ocean, 3 vols. 4to. numerous maps and plates; hf. bd. 1807-09 1 7 0

The third volume is a necessary Appendix, containing the texts and translations of Nearchus, the Periplus, and the pieces from Arrian, which are so extensively commentated in the two volumes.

VIRGINIA PAPERS, relating to the history of the settlement of the north part of that colony; originally collected by one of the early Adventurers, JOHN SMYTH of Nibley (the author of the Lives of the Berkeleys);—but including a few of somewhat later date—and more recently from the Cholmondeley collection at Condover Hall, Shropshire 1613-1776 150 0 0

The autograph documents and contemporary official transcripts of historical papers which form the bulk of this collection have been indexed in my Rough List 112, and the list need not be repeated here. It is enough to say that whatever individual or institution shall become the permanent owner of John Smyth's Virginia Papers, will have a mass of important records to arrange and calendar.

WILLIAMS (Edward) VIRGO TRIUMPHANS: or, Virginia richly and truly valued; more especially the South part thereof . . By Edward Williams, Gent. Small 4to. First Edition, 35 leaves; green morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford
 London, Thomas Harper for John Stephenson, 1650 25 0 0

With AN AUTOGRAPH LETTER (2 pp.) of the author addressed to the Lord President of the Council of State, asking for public promotion of his plan as a national undertaking, while admitting that as a Royalist, and as a relative of Sir Thomas Aston, he was his Lordship's enemy.

—— VIRGO TRIUMPHANS . . the true author's
(i.e. John Farrar's) copy, FULL OF HIS MS.
ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS, and having his sketch of a Map to show the feasibility of communication between Western Virginia and California (Sir F. Drake's New Albion) 1650 28 0 0

A copy of extraordinary interest. Complaints are made over and over again by the annotator that Williams had (for special reasons of his own) omitted important matter which was in the original MS., and in one instance we find "Noe, not soe; that was not in his originall copy but the contrary. . . ." Elsewhere "This gentleman [Williams] is now a pure Carolanian and here playeth his owne gaime cunningly For he hath left out what was in his originall copy . . ." Almost every page is full on the margins with notes of additional information signed with a kind of monogram looking like & and apparently intended for a combination of J (reversed) and f. The sketch-map is a curious composition, and was inserted because, as the writer says, "A mapp had been very proper to this Booke . . ." It is not quite identical with the map engraved by Goddard in 1651, but so nearly like to it that Farrer's hand is evident in both.

WILLIAMS (Edward) VIRGINIA: More especially the South part thereof, Richly and truly valued . . . The second Edition, with Addition of The Discovery of Silkworms, with their benefit . . . By E. W. Gent.

Small 4to. 78 leaves (the last a blank) with a large folding engraved map, mounted on linen; and woodcuts; red morocco extra, gilt edges

T. H. for John Stephenson, 1650 36 0 0

The map (dated 1651) is very rare. A small corner of it containing the words "John Goddard sculp." is repaired and made up. The design is an extraordinary one (the work of John Farrar, who had supplied Williams with all his facts), and was intended to shew the regions behind the Eastern States, so as to prove the accessibility of Sir Francis Drake's New Albion (California).

WILSON (James) A Missionary Voyage to the Southern Pacific Ocean, 1796, 1797, 1798 . . . an Appendix of the natural and civil state of Otaheite, 4to. Large Paper, 13 maps and plates, with the inscription "J. Landseer direxit" on the plates; calf, arms on sides

— another edition, 4to. 13 maps and plates, the inscription "For Missionary Voyage" substituted on the plates for the one that appears in the other edition; calf gilt, arms on sides

Printed for T. Chapman by T. Gillet, 1791 0 12 0

These are two totally distinct impressions, and the list of subscribers in each is quite different from that in the other.

The interest in the Voyages of the Brothers Zeni will never decrease, until we know the absolute truth about the map, dated 1380, in which we find the coasts of Labrador and other parts of America.

RARE. The map of Schondia (i.e. Scandinavia) comprises not only the special regions concerned (with Ireland, Scotland, and North Germany), but also Islandia, Gronlandia, Ulteriora incognita, and Terra Bacallaos. It thus belongs to the class of American cartography. In the text referring to it there is a mention of Antonius Cabot's voyage, and of imminent Spanish expeditions to the North-East of the New Continent. The book is dedicated to the French princess Renée, Duchess of Ferrara. The map of Schondia has been reproduced by Nordenskjöld.

Journal of the National Indian Association, London, August, 1885.—“Three goodly sized handsome volumes having an aggregate of 3610 double columned pages, 35,000 articles, and 16,000 index headings. . . .
There is scarcely a subject relating to India and Eastern and Southern Asia which has escaped more or less extended notice. There is no other work in the English language, in which is brought together an equal amount of information on everything connected with India, her people, arts, manufactures, and products. To the merchant and agriculturist, to the man of science, whether botanist, zoologist, geologist, or meteorologist, no less than to the Oriental scholar, the historian, and literary student, it cannot fail to prove of the highest service as a work of reference. It is well deserving of a place in the library of everyone interested in or connected with India.”

HUNTER (Sir W. W.) IMPERIAL GAZETTEER OF INDIA, second and greatly enlarged edition, 14 vols. 8vo. (pub. at £3. 3s), neatly hf. bd.
morocco

India Office, 1885-87 I 10 0

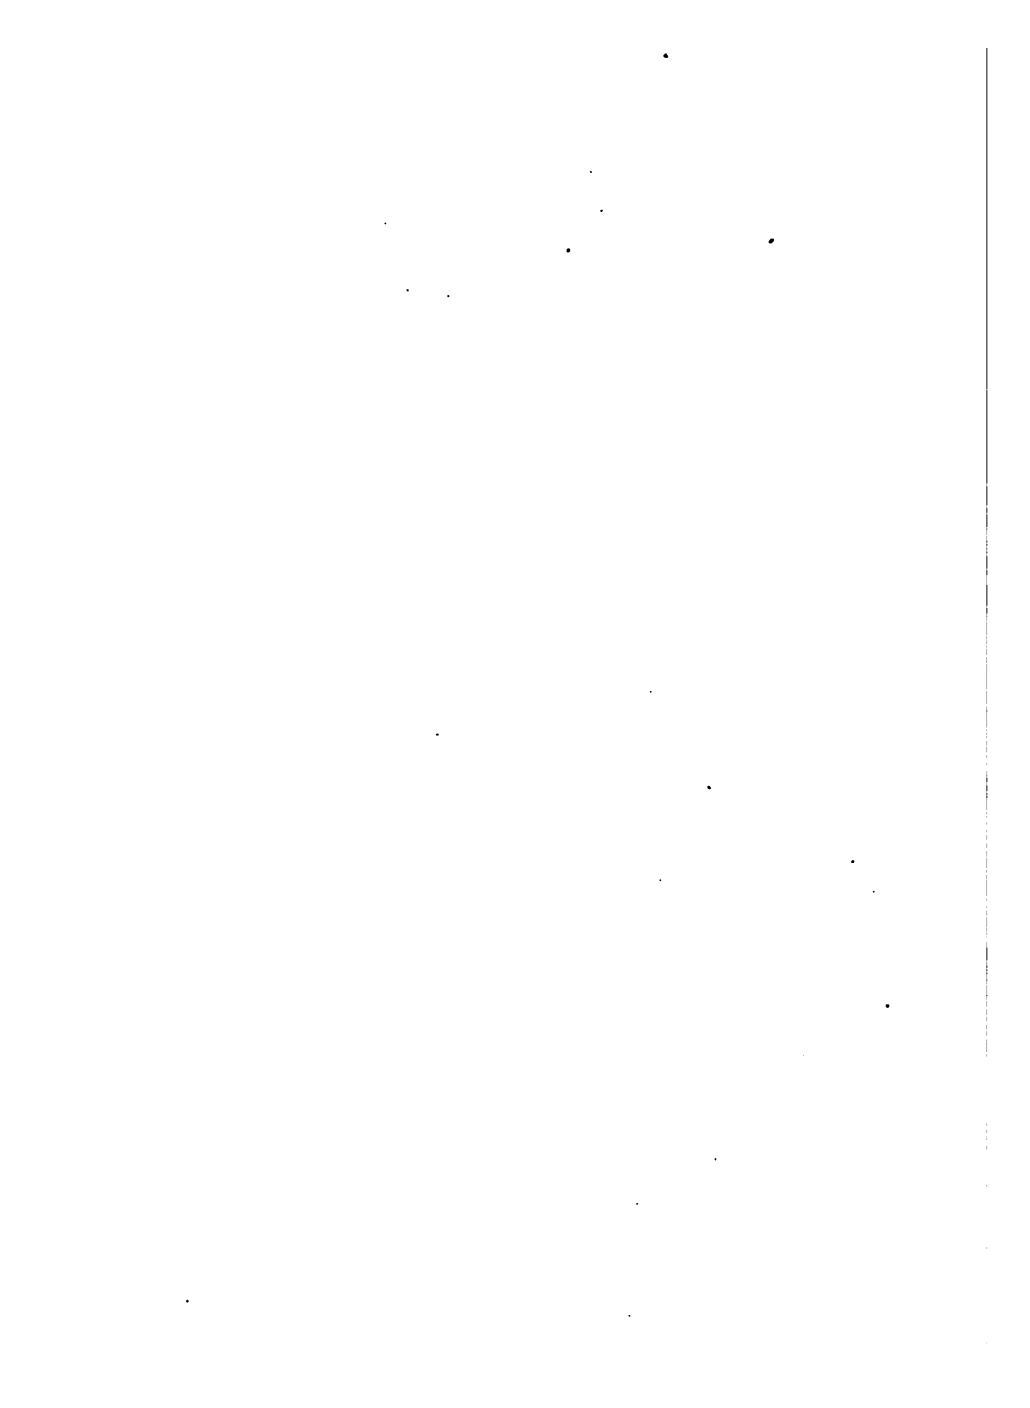

This is one of the monuments of British Rule in India, and records on every page the ability of that grand body the Indian Civil Service. The articles were specially written by the different District officers throughout India and give details of the topography, political administration, agriculture, commerce, antiquities and ethnology of the various places described.

In this work India is thoroughly revealed to English readers for the first time. Districts and towns, far from railways and the beaten tracts of tourists, and hitherto known only by occasional references in Government Reports, are in this work systematically described, and serve to illustrate the wonderful benefits that have accrued to the peoples of India from the British Rule.
